Once again, the Arts Commission's Gallery Hop kicks off the Great American Brass Band Festival. There is no place better than downtown Danville to host this annual event. Over twenty businesses will be hosting more than forty artists at locations inside and outside on the sidewalk. Shop and visit around the world of local art from 5:30 – 8:00 using the guide inside this newsletter which will also be available at host locations. You can track the most up to date list at the Arts Commission's website www.danvillearts.org.

The Gallery Hop is sponsored, in part, by LG&E/KU Community fund.

Art is in YOUR Neighborhood!

What is summer without outdoor activities and what is better than an outdoor concert? Well, not much can beat the summer concert series the Arts Commission has planned for you, and not far from you. Our goal was to gather some of our favorite musicians and scatter them all around the county.

As you will see, we did a pretty good job of it.

The series kicks off with Brett Higgins on June 16th in Henson Park from 6:00 - 8:00. We first met Brett when he performed a concert in Burgin produced by a team in our 2019 Entrepreneur program. We really got to know him when he co-wrote and performed the music in our Piano Paradox school production in 2020. He tours and performs regularly throughout the area. We were lucky to find a date which fit his busy schedule. Donnie Bowling will join Brett for a great evening of music.

Mike Archer will be on stage at the Airport on June 28th from 6:00 - 8:00. Mike has frequently performed at Farmer's Market, other local concerts, and private parties. He also performed and collaborated on the music in our 2019 production of The Convergence of Desire. We are fortunate to schedule him as he is often touring someplace else!

July and August concerts will feature Michael Hughes and his band, the Uplift Irish Troupe with some special guests, and Marcus Wilkerson. Stay tuned for locations, dates, and times.

All concerts are FREE and open to the public. Bring your chair and enjoy the evening, almost in your own backyard!

JULY AND AUGUST CONCERTS:

Michael Hughes Band - July 7th at Michael T. Smith Park

Uplift Irish Troupe with special guests - July 21st in Perryville

Marcus Wilkerson - August 11th on Hogsett School Lawn
