

Brass Band SEASON begins May 1st

The Arts Commission has partnered again this year with the Brass Band's Down-town Downbeat series on First Thursdays beginning in May. The Constitution Square Stage is the home base for the 6:00 – 6:50 opening act each month leading up to the Main Stage in Weisiger Park. The May event features scenes from recent high school productions. Pictured here is Boyle County High Schools' staging of Grease.

artistic fields will be available for selection. The proceeds of the event help support scholarships and art experiences for children in our community. Through the years, many thousands of dollars generated through this event have made arts experiences possible for many children and their families.

The party begins on Friday, May 16th at 6:30 when ticket holders, artists and friends gather at the Preview Party to view the items and plot their strategy for the moment when ticket holder names are called the next night. There will be food, music and a cash bar, along with many spirited conversations. A special selection of pieces will be on display for the Live auction portion on Saturday, May 17th. Throughout both evenings, attendees may also bid on items in a Silent auction.

Doors open both evenings at 6:30 with the Draw beginning at 7:00 on Saturday.

For additional information and ticket purchase, contact Mimi at arts@historicdanvilleky.com. Tickets are going fast!
